

British Thyroid Association

Encouraging the Highest Standards of Research and Patient Care

British Thyroid Association Conference 2021

Thursday & Friday, 20th and 21st May 2021, ONLINE

PROGRAMME

Day 1, Thursday May 20th 2021

Time	Title	Speaker
1200	Trainee Session 1: Bite sized masterclasses for the Thyroidologist
	Radiology for the Thyroidologist	TBC
	Genetics for the Thyroidologist	Professor K Chatterjee, Professor of Endocrinology, University of Cambridge
	Assays for the Thyroidologist	Dr D Halsall, Clinical Biochemist, Cambridge University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
1400	Welcome Address
1410	Symposium: Thyroid Neoplasia
	Update on use of ultrasound for investigation of thyroid nodules	TBC
	Overview of cytological grading and pathological classification of thyroid nodules	TBC
	Overview of genetics of thyroid cancer	Professor Chris McCabe, Professor of Molecular Endocrinology, University of Birmingham
	Management of low risk thyroid cancer	Professor Kristien Boelaert, Professor of Endocrinology, University of Birmingham

1600	BTF Update
1615	George Murray Lecture, "Active surveillance for micropapillary thyroid cancer: a new appreciated strategy" Professor Rossella Elisei, Associate Professor of Endocrinology, University of Pisa, Italy
1700	BTA AGM

Day 2, Friday 21st May 2021

Time	Title	Speaker
1200	Trainee Session 2: Case presentations & discussions
1400	Welcome Address
1410	Oral Communications (science & clinical)
1530	Symposia
	1530: TSHR antagonist therapy	Dr Gerd Krause, Head of Structural Bioinformatics & Protein Design, Leibniz Institute for Molecular Pharmacology, Berlin
	1600: New and established medical therapies for Thyroid Eye Disease	Professor Tomasz Bednarczuk, Department of Internal Medicine and Endocrinology, Medical University of Warsaw, Poland
1630	Announcement of Prizes
1645	Close of meeting	